It offers a gorgeously fresh nose made of lemony elements, melon, pear, white flowers, wet stone, and a hint of gooseberry. The wine is admirably juicy and playful on the palate and leaves a nice sense of precision, nuance, and grip in the long and engaging finish. The aftertaste is superbly racy and juicy, yet also subtle and delicately smooth. This gorgeous wine with great Kabinett-styled cut will prove a winner at maturity, where it could well exceed our high expectations as it blossoms aromatically.

TOP-10 Deutsche Kabinett-Weine im Vergleich,

Sebastian Bordthäuser: „Das Faß 5 von Peter Lauer ist eine Sonderabfüllung, die bei der Trierer Auktion vor internationalen Weinsammlern versteigert wird. Während es an der Mittelmosel für diesen Stil allmählich zu warm wird, zeigt dieser Kabinett die kühle Saar als Gewinnerin des Klimawandels: Feine, filigrane Weine mit seidiger Textur und dem unvergleichlichen Säurespiel ergeben Weine, die größtes Trinkvergnügen garantieren – heute, morgen und die nächsten 25 Jahre.“

It offers a stunning and flowery nose of grapefruit, whipped cream, a hint of pear, passion fruit, fine herbs, and a hint of smoke. The wine is superbly nuanced and precise on the silky and juicy palate, and leaves a stunning feel of cream, juicy orchard fruits, and some herbal elements in the long finish. The aftertaste proves multi-layered and utterly delicious. This Spätlese is easily one of the finest ever which we have tasted from this vineyard! 2029-2049 (Fisch & Rayer 2020)

It offers a gorgeous nose made of grapefruit, pineapple, coconut, apricot, mango, herbs, blueberry, and quite some almond cream, all wrapped into subtly smoky elements. The wine develops beautifully exotic flavors on the suave yet elegant palate and leaves a stunning feel of lively zest in the finish. This beautiful dessert wine manages to deliver the gorgeous exotic and creamy impact of an Auslese GK with Spätlese juiciness and playfulness.
